

Due to Covid-19 the State of Connecticut is postponing all Installer and Cleaner licensing exams until further notice. COWRA will repost the State exam applications as soon as the State of Connecticut notifies us that they are restarting their exam program.

COWRA will be holding its Installer and Cleaner Courses in 2021 and is currently accepting applications for these programs.